

2015 DISLOCATION ALLOWANCE

Dislocation allowance is meant to partially reimburse service members for expenses incurred in relocating the household on a permanent change-of-station move. It is paid in addition to all other authorized travel allowances and may be paid in advance. The single rate is paid to members when government quarters are not assigned or the member moves due to a base closure or realignment. The married rate is paid when dependents make a PCS move or move due to a base closure or realignment. The 2015 rates:
